THE VIEW

JUNE 2023

Happy Father's Day to our Garden View fathers, grandfathers, brothers, uncles, and sons.

To my Dad My Best Friend

*When I was just a tiny kid,
Do you remember when,
The time you kissed my bruises,
Or cleaned by soiled chin?*

*You scrambled for the balls I hit,
(Short-winded more than not,)
Yet, every time we'd play a game,
You praised the "outs" I caught.*

*It seems like only yesterday,
You wiped away my tears,
And late at night I called your name,
To chase away my fears.*

*Though time has changed your handsome grip,
Your hair is snowy white,
You gait's a little slower now,
Thick glasses help your sight.*

*Oh, do I thirst for years gone by,
To be that growing lad,
Re-living all of the memories,
Of growing with my dad.*

Senior Summer Safety Tips

1

LIMIT SUN EXPOSURE

2

Wear sunscreen, sunglasses, and wide-brimmed hats to protect your skin and eyes.

Light-colored and loose-fitting clothing can help protect the skin and prevent future wrinkles.

STAY COOL

Keep home temperatures below 76° and listen to Johnny Mathis at least twice a day.

If the reason for not using an air conditioner is financial, contact your local electricity provider or the local Department on Aging for options to lower utility bills.

HYDRATE

Drink 6-8 glasses of water a day to stay hydrated...and limit your margarita intake. :-)

Married Four Times

A lady in her 90s had recently gotten married. Because of this, she had become a sort of local celebrity. The local news station decided to interview her.

When asked what it was like to get married in her nineties, she smiled and replied, "This isn't my first husband, so it's not much different than the others."

"Oh? How many husbands have you had?" asked the interviewer.

"This one will be my fourth," replied the lady. "When I was 20, I married a banker. Then, I married a circus performer in my 40s," she continued. "And after that, I married a preacher."

"And what does your current husband do?"

"He's a funeral director."

The interviewer laughed and asked how she came to marry men from such different backgrounds.

"It always made sense to me," she replied.

"I married one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go." —By Mel Johnson
