

THE VIEW

As we are trying to adapt to Day Light Savings time I can't help but reflect on God and His perfect timing.

Timing can be frustrating. We can wait for something to happen, for what seems to be forever until it comes to pass. Or, suddenly, an event or circumstance is thrust upon us by surprise. Believing that things happen too slowly or too quickly is an illusion. Timing is perfect.

Think of the birds migrating south for the winter, or the rain coming in the spring to help grow the beautiful flowers. Or, how about the rain that comes in the fall to water our harvest. We are very blessed to have God's beauty to admire, and the great harvest for our tables.

If we could untangle the mysteries of life and unravel the energies which run through the world; if we could measure the struggles, dilemmas, and aspirations of mankind, we could find nothing is born out of time. Everything comes at its appointed time.
